Please provide an example of one way you ‘help’ your human accomplish a task better than they could do it by themselves. My humans need a lot of help and I am happy to provide it. In particular, I stay underfoot to keep them on their toes and I offer encouragement in the form of constant meowing when they are busy with tasks, especially when the female human is washing dishes. I believe my encouragement makes them more skilled and efficient in all their endeavors.

What is the funniest thing that has ever happened to you?

I was inspecting a plastic grocery bag and I got it caught around my neck. In my effort to break free, I ran through the apartment with the bag trailing behind me like a cape. Judging by my humans’ laughter, it was pretty funny, although I secretly suspect I looked quite formidable and majestic. (Please note: At no time was I in any danger. I remained completely unharmed throughout the incident.)

Please share your adoption story

I was found behind a church with my six kittens in the dead of winter. I took good care of my kittens but I had no one to take care of me. But then we were rescued! Eventually all my kittens were adopted and I was left behind in the shelter without them. But then a male human and a female human showed up and thought I was sweet and pretty and they took me home. They have been my humans since 2010.

What is your favourite thing to play with?

Anything I can bite! I love putting my teeth through things that would otherwise not have teeth holes!

What kind of food do you like to eat?

Wet food, dry food, and any human food I can get my paws on, except fruit (ick!). But my humans say some foods are NOT FOR CATS!

Do you like going for car rides?

I neither like nor dislike car rides. I'm a pretty chill cat.

What is your favourite cartoon character?

Garfield

If you drove a car, what make, model and colour would it be and why?

One of my humans knows a lot about physics. In fact, he has a useless piece of paper the humans refer to as a "PhD" which supposedly attests to his knowledge on the subject. Most people don't know this, but as a cat I was born with inherent knowledge of a number of scientific disciplines as well as engineering and design ability, so I intend to collaborate with my human on a custom-made vehicle designed specifically to my tastes and with certain special features (which must remain secret at this time, as I'm sure you can understand) that will make me the most powerful and envied driving cat in existence. It will be turquoise blue, as that colour goes particularly well with my grey and white fur.

Do you have a theme song? What is it?

My theme song is Best Friend by Sofi Tukker. (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4Vx7MTU-UVE>) But my humans have changed the lyrics to: I know that you'll be waking me before the clock strikes five, There's a list of things for me to do from which I cannot hide, Every time you meow at me, I drop what I do, You're my feline friend and I've got some shit to scoop!

How many siblings do you have and what are they (i.e., other awesome kitties, dumb dogs, ugly snakes, etc.) What is your relationship like with them? If they are also applying to the Bitty Space Program, please include their name.

I have no siblings, and that's the way I like it! All the attention should be on me at all times!

What is the name of your human sponsor or sponsors?

Kate Stoker

What type of position are you applying for? What special skills do you think we could use for our program?

Position: Cape-Wearing Physics Consultant. Special skills: Feline physics, superior athleticism, biting, polydactylism (opposable thumbs!), extreme and magnificent beauty.

What else do we need to know about you?

I have a blog! <https://diaryofanapartmentcat.wordpress.com/> (I now live in a house rather than an apartment, but I feel it would confuse my readers if I changed the name of the blog at this point.)

Also, I have a secret crush on Lar, even though I am aware that he is far too young for me. If I were younger and we weren't both speutered we would make some beautiful babies together.
