Please provide an example of one way you 'help' your human accomplish a task better than they could do it by themselves. I help Mama clean the dishes when they are in the sink. I taste-test her water with my paws to make sure it's clean. I help clear shelves and the mantle so she can dust. And make the litter fly so she knows it's time to clean the box (up to 5 times a day).

What is the funniest thing that has ever happened to you?

I'm an acrobat - I like to pull myself along the couch commando style and when I pounce on my toy mice I somersault.

Please share your adoption story

Papa tried to get close to my big brother, Alfie, but Alf's a mama's boy, so he didn't let him. Mama thought Alfie might like a brother, someone that might be Papa's boy, so she tried to adopt several different kittens from our SPCA, but those kittens were so popular they were adopted within hours. She went to the City Animal Shelter instead and chose a sweet grey tabby named Jackson. When she was visiting Jackson, Mama's friend picked me up and said that I reminded her of Papa, and that I should be the one adopted. Mama asked Papa to come and be the tie breaking vote and he picked me! Mama says that I am indeed Papa's partner in crime - whatever that means - and that I have his same rascally ways. I know she loves me, though, especially my thick, bunny soft coat. She says I'm her otter boy.

What is your favourite thing to play with?

Mostly wads of paper, furry mice, bottle caps, the rubber door stop, and anything that makes thumping sounds and wobbles down the hallway fast.

What kind of food do you like to eat?

Everything, especially cookies. I eat anything left out on the counter - even if the bag isn't open, and I like to smell Mama's mouth to find out what she's not sharing.

Do you like going for car rides?

Not at all. And I am sure to let Mama know - LOUDLY.

What is your favourite cartoon character?

Not sure.

If you drove a car, what make, model and colour would it be and why?

A Black Jaguar 'cause I'm fast and luxurious! Vroom Vroom!

Do you have a theme song? What is it?

Marvin Gaye's "Ain't No Mountain High Enough" - I can climb anything, no matter how high, and I like to be wherever my humans are.

How many siblings do you have and what are they (i.e., other awesome kitties, dumb dogs, ugly snakes, etc.) What is your relationship like with them? If they are also applying to the Bitty Space Program, please include their name.

I have an old(er) brother, Alfie. I'm fast, he's slow. I'm frisky, he's a bore. I'm Papa's boy, he's Mama's boy. I try to rough-house and he hisses at me. All I want to do is jump on his head, but he doesn't play along. My other game is "keep away from Mama", but he gets mad and yowls from the hallway and gets me in trouble. I think he's applying to the Bitty Space Program too, and that's okay...just assign us to different jobs, please.

What is the name of your human sponsor or sponsors?

Papa (David) and Mama (Melissa) Parker

What type of position are you applying for? What special skills do you think we could use for our program?

Flight Engineer. I am very clever and procure just about anything you'd want (and I stash it under or in the sofa). I can figure out how to take things apart and open any closed door. It's harder to put things back together the same way, but I think it's improved doing it my way.

What else do we need to know about you?

I think Timbits and I will get along very well as I think we are "cut from the same cloth" (as I've heard Mama say).

Signed:
