I like to get in behind the drawers when my mommie opens the drawer. I like to hide underneath the table and jump out to scare the goofy dog.

What is the funniest thing that has ever happened to you?

I fell off the top of couch while sleeping.

Please share your adoption story

I was 4 months old when my first family left me behind when they moved away. I was left in a field behind my house. I survived by eating from people in the neighbourhood, then it started to get cold out, when the neighbours called a humane society people who called my new mommy who drove to where I was and took me to my new home.

What is your favourite thing to play with?

Everything

What kind of food do you like to eat?

I love my whiskas.
